state that we can," stresses Mrs. Wright.

"Statistics show that we are getting more and more female drinkers in the nation and in Utah; the housewife alcoholic isn't a rarity any longer.

"We want women to know this and think it over seriously. We want them to consider what it looks like to a child to see his mother with a highball in her hand.

"And above all, we want mothers to remember that children grow up mimicking what they see in the home."
